

AUCKLAND
GOVERNMENT
WOMEN'S NETWORK
TE AKA WĀHINE O TĀMAKI
WOMEN ACHIEVING THEIR POTENTIAL

AGWN High Level Plan 2019

A vision for the Auckland Government Women's Network

AUCKLAND
GOVERNMENT
WOMEN'S NETWORK
TE AKA WĀHINE O TĀMAKI
WOMEN ACHIEVING THEIR POTENTIAL

- 2015 Work starts on GWN & AGWN
- 2016 AGWN launched
Events held in Central and South Auckland
AGWN working group refreshed
- 2017 First Auckland summit
- 2018 Full year of events
Key relationships established
Communications strategy developed
Resources created – AGWN Quick Guides
- 2019 Extending reach across the public sector and developing AGWN champions
Development and delivery of seminar programme
Refresh of AGWN strategic plan
Rotation of chair and new honorary Maori Advisor role
- 2020 Partnerships with other Auckland-based initiatives
Agency networks supported and growing in Auckland
Sector or special interest groups established
Streams supporting young leaders and STEM
AGWN membership diverse and inclusive
- 2025 AGWN membership at 25% of women in public service
Full programme of accessible, virtual events

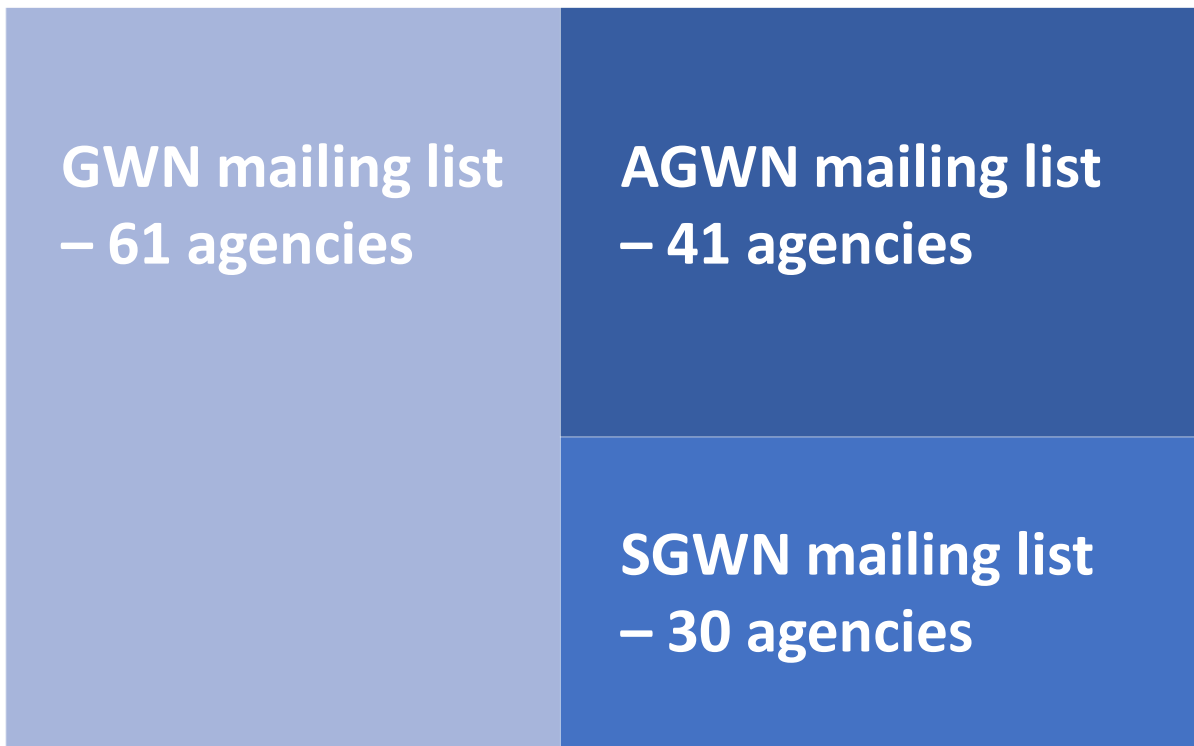

50,000
women in public service roles in Auckland

GWN in numbers

Number of agencies represented on the GWN mailing lists

Number of people receiving GWN communications directly

Data as at 31 October 2018

37%

of AGWN members come from Auckland Council, Auckland Transport or Auckland Tourism and Economic Development (ATEED)

AGWN plans for 2019

Events with partners

Seminar series

Support for mentoring

Leadership succession

Maori adviser

Male champions

AGWN Budget 2019

$2000

Funding Stream: GWN (via IRD)

Quarterly events @ average of $500 per event:

- March 2019 - International Women's Day
- Mid year event - AGWN/Air NZ
- September 2019 - Te Wiki o Te Reo Maori
- End of year event

$5100

Funding stream: WIPS 2018 levy

AGWN seminar series:

- Seminar providers and facilitators
- Expert advice on developing men as allies

Additional events funding

- Enabling events across the Auckland region

AGWN performance measures 2019

Number of AGWN members and agencies represented

Number of events/seminars held

Number of registrations for AGWN quarterly events

Number of attendees at AGWN quarterly events

Number of positive evaluations

Number of social media interactions

Number of newsletters

Success log

Benchmark targets
during 2019